A Charitable Body

By Barnard, Robert.

Scribner. 1 Cloth(s), 2012. hard. Book Condition: New. The winner of Nero, Agatha, and Macavity Awards as well as a Diamond Dagger for lifetime achievement in mystery writing, Robert Barnard scrutinizes family bonds at their best and worst in this novel of suspense, which brings back Yorkshire DI Charlie Peace. His wife Felicity is initially thrilled to be invited to become a trustee of Walbrook Manor, a stately English mansion of the 18th century. But Walbrook's shabby salons and drafty hallways hint at the enormous financial burdens it must have caused its inheritors, members of the interrelated yet far from fraternal Quarles and Fiennes families. The fragile peace between the dynasties is shattered when a wrecked car and human remains turn up in a local lake, and murderous consequences may ensue. 241.
