

Faces of Jazz: A Tribute (Paperback)

By Rudy Browne

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you like jazz, you ll appreciate this book. It is an art book with forty-four portraits of jazz musicians. The portraits are executed in an accessible representational style and are done in oil. Each painting is accompanied with quotes by musicians and other personalities. The prose is written by the author. Many of the paintings are painted with a limited palette, mostly earth tones: umber, ochre and sienna. The dark umber background isolates the musicians and gives the painting a feeling of dark jazz clubs with the spotlight on the performer. A few are almost monochromatic, done in sepia tone that evokes another era; see Brew Moore, (page 15) and Grant Green, (page 28). The author s passion for jazz is obvious and his artistic ability evident. The portraits are quite formal with focus on individual expressions capturing the concentration, intensity and energy of each musician. The quotes refer to music and jazz in particular. One by Ahmad Alaadeen is spot on: Jazz does not belong to one race or one culture, but is a gift that...
