When Judge Mulqueen was informed of these facts, he agreed with our agent that it was about time this boy had his chance, so he was released on probation, and has an excellent, well-paying position at the present time A country boy who had been but a few weeks in the city and was employed only one month as a clerk in a steamship office, told a strange story of how he had been inveigled into an attempt to commit the crime of blackmail. An older man met him in his plate of employment and suggested that he knew uu easy way to make some money. He said that he had learned that a certain rich waist manufacturer uptown had been guilty of certain dishonorable acts and would pay good money to keep them silent. So he induced the boy to write threatening letters to...
