Stevens: Before the Thirty-Seventh Annual Convention My Dear Comrades and Friends: As our National Woman s Christian Temperance Union assembles for its thirty-seventh annual convention, we are profoundly stirred by the thought of our large membership, who are in the midst of a great, world-wide struggle for the complete overthrow of the liquor traffic. It is an electric and a progressive age. Mighty forces are contributing to our success. Each day the cable, the telegraph, the telephone, the up-to-date daily, the friendly cartoonist, the magazine writer, the sermonizer, the thoughtful educator, the medical expert, the scientist, the railroad magnate, the factory owner, the athlete, the autoist, and even the aviator are pointing out total abstinence as the way of health and the way of prosperity. The hearts of our noble W. C. T. U. women, from the first, have been illumined by this truth and now on white wings it encompasses the world. The Lord gave the word - the glad word of total abstinence and prohibition -...
