Soldier for Christ (Paperback)

By John Zeugner

Wipf Stock Publishers, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Description: Rector s assistant Owen Mathias, a young and average sensualist, gradually stumbles on the considerable connections his church in Kobe, Japan, has to atrocities committed by Unit 731, Japan s biological warfare research center in Harbin, Manchuria, during World War II. Mathias s discoveries toss him into theodicy s deepest pit, savaging his faith and pinballing him among the vapid convictions of his rector, the pieties of ex-pat parishioners, the bitter doubts of an American missionary couple, the placid sexuality of his Japanese girlfriend, and the fey manipulations of Japanese witnesses trying to reveal and contain and explain the story. The Great Hanshin Earthquake in Kobe in 1995 underscores the theological writhings Mathias undergoes and his emergence as an ambivalent and comic soldier for Christ. Endorsements: Zeugner s perceptions about the Japanese are always startling. . . . His keen observations of Japan s historical, intellectual, and physical landscape make for an absorbing story of Japan s horrific war crime in China. -Caroline Matano Yang, Former Executive Director, Japan Fulbright Program Soldier for Christ is...
