S. L. City The upper room of the Hall presented a very delectate appearance, being tastefully ornamented with portraits of the First Presidency and Twelve Apostles, one picture hanging on each side of the Hall; also two most splended paintings representing an English bouquet, c. The west end likewise presented a beautiful appearance, neat and elegant pictures of superior workmanship, with a large peer glass, superfine lace curtains; the upper part of the window frame being richly gilded, c., c. The very commodious stage was thrown open, and was well filled with ladies and gentlemen; the orchestra was occupied by our excellent musicians, who all played their parts exceedingly well. This room upon the whole was very suitably set off for the occasion, and reflects much credit on the taste of Mr. David Candland. The lower room or basemement story of the Hall was not a whit behind in its decorations. The southwest end was gracefully hung with flags and banners, the principal one was the flag oil municipality, and the eagle with his outspread wings of liberty standing over a beautifully painted serpentine line, holding the balanced scales with one claw, the word Order on the cast, and Justice on the west side of the flag, and the words Great Salt Lake City running across the bottom. There was also a splendid flag having in the centre the all-seeing eye, the united hands, with the motto Blessings follow Sacrifice; below was an elegant description of the...
