Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Beyond the Natural Order: Essays on Prayer, Miracles and the Incarnation The prayer problem which is real to praying men is not the problem that speculative philosophers debate, - how the will of God may be moved by the petitions of His creatures, - but the profounder moral question why God must needs be besought at all in behalf of any good. To require a man to ask for his own blessings before they are given, may seem, if nothing more, an intelligible way of impressing a beneficiary with his dependence; but praying for one s self does not fill up the Bible ideal of prayer. Prayer subtends also a great arc of Scripture altruism. That believers should pray one for another is the letter of apostolic exhortation and the spirit of the prayer-teaching of Christ. The duty of intercession is emphasized in every New Testament epistle; the example of it abounds in the biographies of our Lord. On the prayers of his converts Paul himself relied both to procure him a door for the word and to assure him the grace to speak boldly as I ought to speak.
