NCE on a time there was a King and Queen in Ireland, and they had one son named Jack, and when Jack grew up to be man big, he rose up one day and said to his father and mother that he would go off and push his fortune. All his father and mother could say to Jack, they could not keep him from going. So with his staff in his hand and his father s and mother s blessing on his head, off he started, and he traveled away far, farther than I could tell you, and twice as far as you could tell me. At length one day, coming up to a big wood, he met a grayhaired old man. The old man asked him, Jack, where are you going? He says, I am going to push my fortune. Well, says the old man, says he, if tis looking for service you are, there is a Giant who lives at the other side of that wood that they call the Giant of the Hundred Hills, and I believe he wants a fine, strong, able, clever young fellow like you. Very well, says Jack, I will push on to him. Push on Jack did, away through the wood, until he got to the other side, and then he saw a big castle, and going up he knocked at the door, and a big Giant came out. Welcome, Jack, says he, the King...
