RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 38 pages. OCLC Number: 53256814 Excerpt: . . . an audit of the independent evaluation. For national security systems, only the results of each audit of an evaluation were to be reported to OMB. For first-year GISRA implementation, OMB provided guidance to the agencies in January 2001, and in June issued final instructions on reporting results of annual agency security program reviews and inspector general independent evaluations to OMB to provide a basis for its annual report to 11 the Congress. These instructions listed specific topics that the agencies were to address in their reporting, many of which were referenced back to corresponding GISRA requirements. Agencies were to report their results to OMB in September 2001 - the same time they were to submit their fiscal year 2003 budget materials. In October 2001, OMB also issued detailed guidance to the agencies on reporting their strategies for correcting the security weaknesses identified through their reviews, evaluations, and 12 other reviews or audits performed throughout the reporting period. This information was to include a plan of action and milestones (corrective action plan) that, among other things, listed the...
