Comstock Publishing Associates. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 480 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.9in. x 1.2in. Improving the quality of land for wildlife is the single most constructive step that anyone can take to assist wild bird populations. Happily, it is well within almost everyones capability to improve bird habitats by providing important food and cover plants. Through this book, I will assist caring landowners and managers of properties ranging in size from urban balconies and suburban backyards to larger properties such as country estates, schoolyards, cemeteries, corporate parks, airports, golf courses, wildlife refuges, and parklands of all sizes. Managers of agricultural land, greenways, and vacant lots alike will find inspiration and techniques within these pages that will help them carry out the urgent and satisfying work of improving land for wild birds. from the Introduction In the second edition of a book treasured by landscapers, birders, gardeners, and naturalists, Stephen W. Kress provides a practical, comprehensive, and thoroughly illustrated guide to attracting birds to any property, be it a small patch of land in the city or a showplace countryside garden, a median strip or an expansive woodlot, a commercial building or a community park. In Kresss view, the best way to attract birds is to enrich habitats by improving vegetation, natural foods, water supplies, and nest sites. Drawing on decades of experience, Kress offers a remarkable variety of techniques and resources for habitat improvement. This book: addresses the special needs of managers of large properties, giving them a toolbox of strategies for habitat restoration; organizes his suggestions by habitat type, such as forest, grasslands, and shrublands; offers advice for selecting native plants by region; details the importance of wetland conservation; discusses the safe use of pesticides and fertilizers; provides useful information on nesting structures and feeding stations; and lists plant vendors and print and online resources...
