I feel it deep in my heart! When they find the people who killed these guys in Neshoba County, you ve got to come back to the state of Mississippi and have a jury of their cousins, their aunts and their uncles. And I know what they re going to say - not guilty. - Dave Dennis, leader of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) When famous political philosopher Alexis de Tocqueville toured the new United States of America, he was impressed by the representative government set up by the Founders. At the same time, he ominously predicted, If there ever are great revolutions there, they will be caused by the presence of the blacks upon American soil. That is to say, it will not be the equality of social conditions but rather their inequality which may give rise thereto. De Tocqueville was prescient, because the longest battle fought in the history of the United States has been the Civil Rights Movement. The framers of the Constitution kicked the problem down the road, over half a million died during the Civil War to end slavery, and then many more fought and died to dismantle segregation and legalized racism in the 100 years after. Today every American is taught about watershed moments in the history of minorities struggles for civil rights over the course of American history: the Civil War, Brown v. Board of Education, Rosa Parks refusal to give up her seat,...
