Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the 25th chapter of the Biblical book of Matthew, Jesus presents a parable illustrating His Second Coming wherein he separates the righteous from the unrighteous. This parable has been aptly named Sheep and Goats since these animals represent both of the abovelisted groups respectively. In verses 33-40 of this parable, Jesus states the following: He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right, Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me. Then the righteous will answer him, Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you? The King will reply, Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me. It is clear that one of the standards which Jesus Christ will judge each of us by is the compassion we ve shown to The Least of These. Furthermore, He makes it quite apparent and becomes transparent in His affection...
