Farhad Nezhadpournia. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Sands of Crime, Farhad Nezhadpouria, Frank Banks never dreamed that serving his country would come at a much higher cost than he could have ever imagined. Torn between his desire to do what is right and the love of a woman who mysteriously re-enters his life. Frank's voyage takes him ever deeper into the inner sanctum of the military hierarchy as well as bringing him face to face with some of the world's most dangerous terrorists. Soon the lines between right and wrong are blurred and he quickly finds himself along with his highly skilled team struggling to reach the truth. A journey that stretches from Afghanistan where his story begins and culminates in one of the most bloodiest encounters ever faced by a Special Forces Team. This novel tackles the complex human relationships that exist during both peace and wartime. A soldier's honour, code and above all loyalty are put to the test, the price for success comes at a much greater sacrifice than these brave men could have ever imagined and soon it becomes painfully clear that sometimes doing the right thing does not always have to be right.
