THE PRICE OF HANNAH BLAKE is in the tantalizing tradition of the Victorian underground erotic novel, but with the pace and suspense of a contemporary thriller, as Hannah Blake fights for survival in Victorian England's bizarre Duke's Troupe of dancers and actors. You fall in love with Hannah's beauty, courage in the face of unimaginable abuse, and determination to assert her own awakening passion-and love-in the duke's prison of luxury and license. You are swept along as the unspoiled farm girl from Devon is torn from her family, stripped and appraised by her ruthless instructors, forcibly initiated into the cruel erotic games of the young men and women of the troupe-and fights to survive and preserve her deepest values. It is romantic suspense that seizes you and draws you forward ever faster as Hannah falls in love with the man who will risk everything to save her from enslavement to the duke and his consorts--a fate no one ever has escaped. Here is...
