Although I can only treat the subject very superficially, I hope that I shall be able to arouse such a curiosity in some of the younger members of the lodge as to incite them to study the subject for themselves. The great importance attached to the Legendary History arises from the following causes: Firstly. It is the only existing authority we have for the traditions and allegories which are found in the Craft Ritual. Secondly. That a study of it shews how those traditions and legends, commencing on a simple and modest scale, gradually became extended and in some instances finally distorted. Thirdly. Because the MSS. of the Legendary History are the real sources for acquiring any knowledge of Freemasonry up to the end of the sixteenth century. Other sources are so fragmentary that they only lend themselves to inductive or speculative theories. Although it may be thought that they have no connection with Freemasonry, it will be necessary for us to give a glance at the early mediaeval Gilds of England, most of which have either ceased to exist or are represented by the various City Companies and Corporations.
