Reviews

An extremely awesome publication with lucid and perfect explanations. It is actually written in basic phrases rather than confusing. You will like how the writer publishes this book.

Just to whoever. whoever knows the answer. r oozman mr. frye. I do not know if these contracting officers take a test. they do receive 40 hours of training. and they are warranted by the head of the contracting activity out in the field. They are not war-ranted by me because their warrants are 100, 000 or less. r oozman m. b. you mentioned a number of contracting warranted VR and E and assistant VR and E officers. You have a number currently. are you comfortable with the number of folks that you have got m. c. well, i can answer for Vr and e. i think we are com-S aden forttable with the number, but we are looking to maybe shift some of those responsibilities. as fte becomes available we would like to have maybe some contract specialists in each of the offices or a combination of offices and let the counselors get back, because these are counselors who are acting in this capacity, and let them get back to working with the veteran on an actual counseling basis and shift some of the responsibility for the management of contracts to a dif-ferent individual. but right now, i think, because we have at least two in each office and a number of others that work as the COTRs, we are okay. r oozman m. b. who oversees the contracting actions m. c. Well basically it would be the VR and E officer. But there S aden is a contracting specialist in...
