THE THREE GHOST BROTHERS

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 96 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. This illustrated chapter book is great for ages 6-12. The ghost story with its twists and turns will keep the young readers interested in the story. The three ghost brothers live happily in Ghostville which had more ghosts than humans. But then. . . On one starry night, one of the brothers, Black Underarm, is accused of illegal haunting outside his own haunting territory. He is being handcuffed and taken into a dungeon. He must now face the frightful ghost council. What will his two brothers Brown Bumstain and Ripped Sheet do to help him? Fortunately, the ghost council decides to read the old law book and find a test of innocence - actually it consists of three separate tests that the accused ghost has to pass. The other brothers decide to help their brother and save him from his grim destiny. Join the ghosts on this ghostly scary and entertaining adventure and find out what happens next! With ghostly-atmospheric illustrations by the author, here is a dreamlike and captivating ghost tale. In this timeless fairytale, the author evokes the largest of the eternal themes -- hope and compassion -- with the lightness of a ghost's transparent touch. This book has lots of funny illustrations which will keep all the young readers interested in this story. The illustrations are black and white in the paperback edition. The illustrations in ebook version are in full color (if you have a device which allows colors). This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
