

DOWNLOAD

A Passion for Seeing: On Being an Image Maker (Paperback)

By Frederick Franck

Codhill Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 249 x 193 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In A Passion for Seeing, Frederick Franck establishes himself as a prime minister witness to the twentieth century. Read in this anthology the best of Franck's observations: from the onset of the Second World War to private audiences with Pope John XXIII and H.H. the Dalai Lama, from his work with Albert Schweitzer in Africa to the art and wisdom of ancient Japan, follow his art and thought as they illuminate our world. Frederick Franck's work is a perpetual prayer for peace. He implores in not only visually but also through thought. Above all, he asks that we recall the meaning of life, which in the words of Hui Neng, Six Zen Patriarch, to see. from the foreword by David Appelbaum His sincere dialogues with the spiritual masters of the East show us the possibilities of a universal ecumenism that is rarely experienced. Matthew Fox, author of Original Blessing For the pilgrim in each of us what better comparison that Frederick Franck? His wise, witty, compassionate observations-in lively words and livelier drawings-jolt us awake to the wealth of our...

READ ONLINE

[1.58 MB]

Reviews

Basically no words to describe. It is filled with knowledge and wisdom I am just pleased to let you know that this is actually the greatest publication i have read within my individual lifestyle and may be he best publication for at any time.

-- Prof. Ron Gaylord II

A very wonderful pdf with perfect and lucid explanations. This can be for those who statte that there had not been a worth reading. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Mr. Stone Kunze