Along with the advantages accruing from this state of things there will also be some difficult problems to be solved. + + + + Dr. Jas. B. Woods writes: The new hospital is full to overflowing on the men s side and is filling rapidly on the women s side. It is convenient and a great help. The Chinese are much pleased with, it and with its appearance. I am training my assistants in regular scientific hospital work, and also in some aggressive Christian work. Our hospital chapel is attractive and will be as a teaching as well as a preaching place. Dr. Woods is greatly in need of a trained nurse for his work in the hospital, and if some one would apply for the position we would make extraordinary efforts to provide the means for...
